

The JK Coltrain Show

Born in the hills of West Virginia, steeped in the traditions of Appalachian music J.K. Coltrain's honest approach and intriguing baritone brings a unique twist to even today's country music.

A veteran artist whose hit single "West Virginia You're Still My Home" had him touring the country to rave reviews and appreciative audiences throughout the 80's, is back... With new material that is smack in the middle of today's Country Music and screams Americana at it's very best...

J.K.'s show includes several of the songs favored by fans over the years including, "Everybody's Making It Big" - "There Goes Another Love Song" - "Damned If I Do" - "If That's What It Takes (To Make You Happy)" - "Mother Trucker' Blues" - "Long Time Lovin' You" - "The Way I Feel Tonight" blended with new songs penned by J.K. and some of the top songwriters from around the country. Throughout the show J.K. pays tribute to some of his country music heroes and spotlights the best of today's top talent...

When you add the comedy and humor that has always marked The J.K. Coltrain Show, this is something special that audiences always come back for. This year J.K. has added a couple of new twists and features individual members of his band more then ever before.

The J.K. Coltrain show is a wonderful combination of Country, Americana, and a bit of Western Swing all presented with a tongue-in-cheek style of humor that makes for a toe tapping good time that the whole family is sure to enjoy.
